ENGLISH LANGUAGE INSTITUTE

The English Language Institute is specifically designed to help non-native speakers from all over the world gain a functional command of English in grammar, listening/speaking, and reading/writing. We provide a quality, intensive program for foreign students to help prepare them for higher learning in an American institution.
Why students choose the ELI?

- To have a successful academic experience in an American institution of higher learning.
- To pass the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL).
- To improve essential language skills for everyday communications.
- To experience individual attention. Our small size classes provide the perfect environment for one-on-one interactions.
- To engage in activities on and off campus. Our courses are located in one centralized campus – which provides convenient access to our visiting students.
- To have access to instructors with a wide range of teaching experience, knowledge, and who are well-suited to assist students in learning a new language.

The English Language Institute (ELI) offers an excellent, English as a second language, program for students from all over the world. ELI is specifically designed to help learners gain functional command of English in listening, speaking, grammar, reading, and writing.

We provide a quality, intensive program for non-native speakers that meets the learning needs of our diverse student population. Our teachers and staff are ready to make your experience a remarkable one.

ELI students will learn the fundamental components of the English language, such as grammar, comprehension, reading, writing, speech, and much more.

Our strategic learning program, together with El Paso’s unique border culture, will provide students with a captivating experience that cannot be found anywhere else.

On completion of this program, students will have sufficient grasp of the English language to function in American society with ease.
Through our optimal organization structure our students experience education in an environment that is “alive” with engagement and active learning. The English Language Institute’s courses are divided in the following categories:

ELI: Core Intensive English Program
Fall I and Fall II

This program is designed to help learners gain a functional command of English in grammar, listening, speaking, reading and writing. It caters to the beginning English speaker as well as advanced students seeking to enter a higher-education program. New students will be placed in appropriate levels according to their performance on a placement exam.

Classes meet Monday through Thursday, from 8 a.m. to 1:20 p.m. In addition to core courses (21 hours a week), students may register for elective courses for an additional fee. Electives take place Monday through Friday from 1:30 to 2:45 p.m. and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

The Intensive English Program offers the following:

- Individualized attention
- Highly skilled instructors
- Exam preparation for the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)

NOTE: Prospective students must register in order to take the placement test by submitting all necessary documents. International applicants who require an I-20 Form must submit all the required documents to the ELI by the submission deadline found in the calendar and fees at Professional & Public Programs website at ppp.utep.edu.

TOEFL iBT Preparation Course (Internet-based Test)

This course is designed to prepare students for the internet-based test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) (iBT). Successful completion of the TOEFL iBT is required for admission into American undergraduate and/or graduate programs.

It will cover all knowledge and skills evaluated by the TOEFL iBT, such as: listening and reading comprehension, vocabulary, English language structure and essay writing skills. In addition, test-taking strategies will be addressed to help students make the most of their time when taking the test.

English Conversation: Level II
For those who want to sharpen their conversational skills, this intermediate to advanced level course in English as a second language expands on speaking and listening skills for effective communication in English by emphasizing the use of common idioms, role-play and short debate.

17FELI2802 | Fee: $119 | Meetings: 10
10/9 – 11/8 | M and W 6 to 7:30 p.m.

English Conversation: Level III
This is an advanced course designed to help students continue sharpening their conversational skills from the previous English Conversation: Level II course. This Level III course utilizes role-play and debate tactics to help students further build upon their confidence in communicating the English language.

17FELI2803 | Fee: $119 | Meetings: 10
11/13 – 12/13 | M and W 6 to 7:30 p.m.

English for Academic Purposes (EAP)
English for Academic Purposes (EAP) is an English language course specifically focused on helping international students acquire the advanced competencies in academic English that will be necessary for them to complete their degree program. It is a learner-centered, integrated-skills based course that will develop students in the four skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) in an academic context. This course will teach students the conventions of research, composition, and documentation necessary to produce rigorous academic and professional work. This course assumes a fairly advanced level of English proficiency. Because the purpose of this course is to help students develop specific academic skills, the course is not suitable for beginner-level English students.

I’m lucky and grateful to have been one of ELI’s students. It has been a short journey, but one filled with effective learning, happiness, and great experiences. I have learned a lot from all of the great teachers in the institute and my fellow multicultural students. I will always be thankful and proud of this experience. Thank you to all at ELI, with a special thanks to Mr. Sam.

- Hawra Mohammed, former ELI Intensive English Program student
Thanks to you and your department for the patience you have extended to my niece. She said that your program is very challenging but inspiring. She is already thinking of taking more courses so she can have more options when applying for a job with international companies.

- Daryl L. Marquez, aunt of an ELI student
